THE PRINCE OF MAGICIANS.

It is related of Lignor Blitz, that wishing one day while in Pennsylvania, to procure a draft on New York, for a certain amount, he stepped into one of the country banks in that State and made known his wishes to the proper officer, who, by the way, was a stiff staid old Quaker. Being informed that he could be accommodated, he was asked—

"In whose name shall I draw the draft?"

"In my own, Signor Blitz," was the answer.

"Art thou the wonderful man who is performing all these mysterious things?" asked the Quaker.

"The same," answered the Signor.

"And now, friend, will thee show me one of thy tricks?" enquired the Quaker.

"With pleasure," said the Magician, and taking a quarter of a dollar from his pocket, he handed it to the officer and requested him to mark it so that he would be able to distinguish it. This the Quaker did.

"And now," said the Signor, taking a glove from his pocket and placing it over the quarter, which he had laid upon the counter, "are you sure the quarter is under the glove?

"Quite sure," answered the Quaker, gently lifting the glove and beholding the quarter snugly ensconsed under it.

"Sure, quite sure?" asked the Signor.

"Yes, friend, I see it with mine own eyes," answered the other.

"Lift the glove," said the Magician.

The Quaker did so, and to his consternation the quarter was gone.

"Friend," said the Quaker, "wilt thou do that once more?"

Again the Quaker placed the quarter in the same position, and motioning the Signor to stand back, the Quaker placed his eyes down upon a level with the counter, and then making a sudden dive at the glove, he lifted it, and—the quarter was gone.

"Jonathan," said the Quaker, drawing a long breath, "place that money," referring to the amount received for the draft, "away in the safe and lock it up, and put the key in thy pocket."

"Well," said the Signor, who is always fond of a joke, "now I will give you a proposition. If I can, standing where I am, draw that money into my pocket, I may keep it; if I cannot, I will surrender the draft, and the money is yours."

"Go thy way, friend, thou shouldst not do such things," said the Quaker, politely bowing the Signor to the door.

ANECDOTE OF JENNY LIND.

As Jenny Lind was coming over from Europe, she desired the Captain of the steamship in case of there being any fine moonlight night, to call her on deck, without regard to the lateness of the hour. Such a night did occur on the passage—a splendid moon lit up the heavens and the sea—while dark masses of clouds gave shadows and variety to the glory. It was one of those scenes which seem to bear witness to the intellect that the great truths of revelation are realy TRUTHS—which convince the soul that the Creator of all things, must be a Being of unlimited love, and that beyond the boundaries of this earthly existence, opens wide still more realms of infinite beauty and eternal peace. Jenny and the rest of the passengers had retired to their berths, but the fair Swede dressed herself and came upon deck. She contemplated the magnificent scene in silence for a few moments—and then falling upon her knees, she began a low song to the Deity, full of religious fervor and reverential awe. The Captain says that he was never more impressed than by this song—so heartfelt, so entrancing in its angelic breathings of praise and gratitude towards the great author of Life and Light and Glory.

Saturday Evening Post.

HOW COAL WAS MADE. Geology has proved that, at one period, there existed an enormously abundant land vegetation, the ruins or rubbish of which, carried into seas, and there sunk to the bottom, and afterward covered by sand now recognize as coal. This was a natural transaction of vast consequence to us, seeing how much utility we find in coal, both for warming our dwellings and for various manufactures, as well as the production of steam, by which so great a mechanical power is generated. It may naturally excite surprise that the vegetable remains should have so completely changed their apparent character, and become black. But this can be explained by chemistry; and part of the marvel becomes clear to the simplest understanding whom we recall the familiar fact, that damp hay, thrown close into a heap, gives out heat, and becomes of a dark color.

When a vegetable mass is excluded from the air, and subjected to great pressure, a bituminous fermentation is produced, and the result is the mineral coal, which is of various characters, according as the mass has been originally intermingled with sand, clay, or other earthly impurities. On account of the change effected by mineralization, it is difficult to detect in coal the traces of a vegetable structure; but these can be made clear in all except the highly bituminous caking coal, by cutting or polishing it down into thin transparent slices, when the microscope shows the fibres and cells very plainly. From distinct isolated specimens found in the sand-stones amidst the coal beds, we discover the nature of the plants of this era. They are almost all of a simple cellular structure, and such as exist with us in small forms, (horse tails, club mosses, and fens,) but advanced to an enormous magnitude. The species are all long since extinct. The vegetation generally is such as now grows in clusters of tropical islands; but it must have been the result of a high temperature obtained otherwise than that of the tropical regions now is, for the coal strata are found in the temperate, and even the polar regions.

The conclusion, therefore, to which most geologist have arrived is, that the earth originally an incandescent or highly heated mass, was gradually cooled down, until in the carboniferous period it fostered a growth of terrestrial vegetation all over its surface, to which the existing jungles of the tropics are more barrenness in comparison. The high and uniform temperature, combined with a greater proportion of carbonic acid gas in the manotacture, could not only sustain a gigantic and prolific vegetation, but would also create dense vapors, showers and rains, and these again gigantic rivers, periodical inundations, and deltas. Thus all the conditions for extensive deposits of wood, in extuaries would arise from this high temperature; and every circumstance connected with the coal mensures points to such conditions.

THE CONSTITUTION AND THE OLD THIRTEEN STATES.

The National Constitution, formed by the Convention of 1787, provided that it should not go into operation until it had been adopted by nine States acting in their sovereign capacity, and only those States should be bound by its provisions, that had signified their acceptance of it. The adjournment of the National Convention at Philadelphia, was followed by Conventions in each State to consider the expediency of adopting it, and after two or three years deliberation, it was finally acceded to by the whole of the thirteen colonies that had leagued together in the war of Independence. Each State considered the question for itself and by itself, and, uninfluenced by the action of other States, adopted it as the paramount law of that State. The whole of the Constitution was adopted, without any reservation whatever. The provision guarantying the surrender of fugitive slaves was not the least important provision of this Constitution, and, with the rest of it, received the sanction of every one of the States. Such was the agreement made between the States in 1787, and sactioned by them two or three years thereafter. Let us see how the old thirteen States now stand affected by the Constitution—particularly to the provision concerning fugitive slaves.

We shall take the final vote in the House of Representatives on the fugitive slave bill as a test of public sentiment. The members of the House are the immediate representatives of the people, and their action may be fairly considered as the will of their respective constituents. The fugitive slave bill we view as nothing more than an affirmation of the Constitution—nothing more than an embodiment of the provisions concerning fugitive slaves, and per consequence, a vote on the bill was a vote on the Constitution itself. How stand the old thirteen? The six States at the South were unanimous in its favor,—viz: Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware. The vote of the remaining seven is represented in the following table, both the number for and against the bill, and also the number not voting:

States.	For.	Against.	Not voting.
New Hampshire,	2	1	1
Massachusetts,	1	5	5
Rhode Island,	0	2	0
Connecticut,	0	3	1
New York,	1	22	11
New Jersey,	1	1	3
Pennsylvania,	4	10	10

Of these seven States New Hampshire is the only one, giving an actual majority of her representatives voting, in favor of the bill, just half of her delegation supporting it; New Jersey is equally divided as appears from the votes actually given; while Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, and Pennsylvania—5 States, are most decidedly opposed to it. It appears then that the Constitution is sustained and reaffirmed by only eight of the old thirteen. If then, the sentiments of the Northern people, at the time the Constitution was formed, had been the same as now, it could never have gone into force—the approval of nine States not being obtained. Such is the change that has taken place in public sentiment. The Constitution, which received the unanimous sanction of the old thirteen, can hardly, at this day, rally to its support a majority of those States. Such a fact falls upon the ears of the lovers of the Union with crushing weight, yet it is a fact established beyond all cavil. The Constitution no longer accords with public sentiment at the North, and is therefore a nullity. The day has arrived when public sentiment in that quarter commands the Constitution to be violated; and violated it has been. Is it longer safe for the South to remain in the Union? Are the guaranties of the Constitution worth anything? The recent transactions in Boston give an answer to these questions, which has sunk deep into the hearts of the citizens of the South. New. Rep.

COTTON BAGGING.—A new article. The Mississippian contains the subjoined notice of a new article of bagging made from the moss growing so extensively in the forests and swamps of the South and Southwest.

"We have examined an article of cotton bagging made of moss taken from the trees in our woods, and while we shall refrain from expressing our opinion of its merits—not having seen it tried with the hooks—it gives us pleasure to say that its appearance indicates strength and durability, and we think it well worthy of the attention of our planters. We desire to see it fairly tested.

"The experiment of manufacturing this new bagging originated with Maj. Mosely, the Superintendent of the Penitentiary. Some years ago, he attempted its manufacture with his cotton machinery, and he was so well satisfied with the result that he sent a large quantity of moss to Kentucky, where it was manufactured into bagging with more suitable machinery. A portion of it has been received and is now in the store of Messrs. Fearn & Putman, where although the heaviest article it may be bought at a price similar to the Kentucky.

"We learn that should the bagging be successful, it may be made at a lower rate than the Kentucky bagging. Having an inexhaustible quantity in our woods, a demand for it, would bring the price of the raw article down to three cts. per pound. Five cents more would cover the cost of manufacture, and the article might be furnished at eight cents per yard. It would also be in the power of the planter to manufacture his own bagging. We think the subject is one well worthy the attention of the Legislature. The sale of bagging in our own State alone, will this year amount to three hundred and twenty thousand dollars. It is easy to see that if this new article becomes a good substitute, owing to its cheap price, that the whole of this large amount of money will be employed in our own State for the direct and permanent benfit of our planters, mechanics and manufacturers.

Nothing has tended so much to cripple the power of the South and strengthen the hands of her Northern assailants, as the suicidal course adopted by a portion of the Southern press, and the vain hopes of conciliation and compromise which it has continued to hold out while the march of aggression goes steadily on. The only stand made in defence of Southern rights and which extorted even a show of compromise from the Northern assailants, has been made by the slandered "agitators," exposed to a fire in front from the North, and to a fire in the rear from its Southern sympathisers. Not content with refusing to co-operate with the Spartan majority of the Southern delegation, who in the face of obloquy and slander breasted the torrent of sectional and partisan fanaticism—not satisfied with remaining passive, some of the Southern compromisers have sterneously endevored to class the Free-soilers and the "Ultras" together, as equally dangerous and destructive—thus giving the most effectual aid and comfort to the enemy. Southern Press.

EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION. The New York Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer has the following:

"I saw a machine to-day, which, if I am not mistaken, is destined to create a revolution in the preparation of sugar. In my presence, some two hundred weight of sugar, of the dirtiest character, imaginable, and as black as soot, was placed in it, and in six minutes by my watch it came out white, dry and perfectly clean and sweet. Knowing nothing of mechanics, I cannot give you a good description of it. All that I can say is, that the sugar is put into a hollow cylinder lined with wire cloth which revolves at the rate of about three hundred times a minute, and after making about fifteen hundred revolutions, the sugar is found to be clean and dry. Centrifugal motion cleans it. The machine was first applied to drying clothes, but it is admirably suited for clarifying oil, rectifying sugar, and a thousand other useful purposes."

MILITARY VISIT TO ENGLAND. We learn that the "New York Light Guard," one of the "crack" military companies of our city, under command of Capt. Vincent, are making extensive arrangements to visit Liverpool, London and Paris, in June next. They contemplate mustering 100 strong, "rank and file." One of Collins' magnificent steamers is to convey them to England and back. In furtherance of this brilliant design, we are informed, that one of the honorary members of the corps has signified his willingness to subscribe $5,000 towards defraying the expenses attendant upon the jaunt. This is a splendid idea—a voyage to Europe in these times is but a holliday excursion. How delighted the true republicans of England and France would be to see a Yankee Volenteer company parading through the streets of London and Paris, and how the eyes of the autocratic rulers would open and twinkle at such a "sight" from the new world. New York Sun.

John Graham, Esq. has been arrested and held to bail for his assault on James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald.

MR. BUEL, OF MICHIGAN.

We cordially approve the compliment which our correspondent pays to this accomplished and independent representative. We sympathize with the just indignation which he expresses. It is a vulgar mind only which could descend to such a mode of testifying an opposition to any man: it is the blindest fanaticism which could apply it to a man like Mr. Buel. The time is coming when the country will do him full justice: Wash. Union.

A Faithful Representative.—His Reward.

It is no slight regret to the democratic party and to every Union man, that the Hon. Alexander W. Buel—the honest and independent representative from the 1st congressional district of Michigan—is defeated for the 32d Congress. Fanaticism defeated him—this, coupled with the untruth that the fugitive-slave law suspended the habeas corpus. During the last session of Congress no member was more untiring in efforts to secure the passage of the peace measures; and among these he also voted for the "fugitive-slave law." He voted for that measure honestly, believing—as many others did—that not only was it a measure constitutionally due to the South, but that it would prove potential in effecting the grand object of a compromise between the South and the North. His high-toned course—his true constitutional course—has been repudiated by a majority of his constituency; and the following will show the height to which malignity towards him was manifested.

Let the South look at this sacrifice of Mr. Buel, and say whether there is in the North no virtuous adherence to the constitution "as it is." Mr. Buel has proved there is. With regard to the result of the election in Michigan, I have only to say, so far as Mr. Buel is concerned, that—and he will. Like the phœnix, he will hereafter rise from this defeat, and like the slumbering giant, ere long rouse from his recumbent position, and overcome all the vile machinations of his enemies and the abolition traitors of the constitution.

"Truth crushed to earth—will rise again;"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13, 1850.

From the Detroit Free Press, October 30.

SHAMEFUL ABOLITION OUTRAGE—Hon. A. W. BUEL BURNT IN EFFIGY. We learn that on Thursday evening, after the departure of Mr. Buel from Jonesville, he was burnt in effigy by the abolition supporters of Mr. Penniman. A more shameful outrage was never perpetrated. Those who differ politically with Mr. Buel have ever entertained for him the highest personal respect and confidence. The character of no man in this community stands higher. As a representative in Congress, he has certainly acquired a position and reputation of which any man might well be proud. An outrage so infamous will, we are confident, provoke the general indignation of all parties in this district, and excite to renewed exertions the friends of the Union and of its gallant and eloquent defender. Whenever Mr. Buel is burned, it will be with the constitution of his country around him.

REDISTRICTING THE STATE. In our opinion it is the duty of the next Legislature to repeal the law enacted by the Whig Legislature of 1846-'7, laying off the Congressional districts of the State, and to restore the act of 1842-'3. At that session, the democrats had a majority in the Legislature, and it became their duty to district the State according to the new apportionment; they did so, giving to themselves five districts and the Whigs four—making the division as equal as it was possible to be made. In 1846 the Whigs, having a majority in the Legislature, repealed the law of 1842-'3, and established the present law—giving themselves six members of Congress—and the Democrats three. Could anything be more unjust than this, even if the Whigs had a majority of a thousand or two in the State? The object of the Whigs was a political one; to secure office for a greater number of their politicians, and the vote of the State for a Whig President, in case the election was thrown into the House of Representatives in 1848. These were their real objects. But the reasons given for the alteration of the districts were, that the Democratic Legislature of 1842-'3 had committed a fraud on the People, in the manner they had laid off the Districts. The Democrats then avowed their determination to wipe off the imputation, as soon as they possessed the power to do so. It is now the duty of the Democratic portion of the Legislature to execute that determination. North Carolina is Democratic, and no man will say that the Democratic party is not entitled to five members of Congress. Repeal the present law, and re-enact that of 1842-'3, is expected of our Legislators. Another reason should be duly considered: the next election of President of the United States may devolve on the House of Representatives, and, it is of the utmost importance that the vote of North Carolina shall be cast for a sound and safe Democrat. As to the question of constitutionality, there need be no hesitancy now; the whigs settled that in 1846-'7, and they cannot complain if the Democrats choose to take the advantage of a principle then established. Besides the restoration of the act of 1842-'3 is demanded from those who entertain doubts as the constitutionality of the act now in force. We say then, let the Whig act be repealed, and the original act be restored. Newbern Republican.

FREE NEGROES. We hear but one opinion expressed, not only by the press of our State, but by every one with whom we converse, in respect to free negroes. All are unanimous in the opinion that the approaching Legislature ought to pass an act to remove them beyond the limits of the State. We admit that, to the Legislature, the duty may be a painful one. For, none will deny that, in removing this class of people from the scenes of their childhood, where they enjoyed health, plenty, and happiness, a deep and lasting wound will pierce the heart of all. But necessity, imperative necessity sternly admonishes us of the expediency of such an act. And while we here give it our unqualified approval, we cannot but regret that, the unaccountable fatuity of Northern Abolitionists, urges us to this conclusion. The safety of our people and a proper regard for the welfare and future subordination of the slave population demand it at the hands of the Legislature.

We know the humanity of North Carolinians, and we know that all imaginable leniency will be exercised by the Legislature in making arrangements for their speedy removal. Let the North have them. And let their curses rest upon the North, because of their removal from a land flowing with milk and honey, to a land where they can scarcely procure the necessaries of life. On the heads of the Northern fanatic rests the responsibility. Goldsboro' Patriot.

THE NORTHERN PLATFORM FOR THE NEXT CAMPAIGN. The following platform is laid down in the Hartford (Conn.) Republican. It has the endorsement of the Free Soil press throughout the North and West:

1st. Congress must prohibit slavery and establish freedom in the Territories. Notice of bills to this effect has been given in both Houses.

2d. Slavery must be abolished in the District of Columbia. Long enough has it been there to disgrace the nation. Let there be an end of it. The National Government must be delivered from this abomination. The attempt to neutralize slavery must be fought until it is thoroughly defeated. If this chattelism of men is a State institution, let it be driven to the States where it belongs, and there let it die.

3d. There must be no more slave States added to this Union. Not another of these sweltering bodies of death, these nurseries of oppression, treason, bowie-knife civilization, and pitch pine chivalry, must come into increase the debauchry of public sentiment in this country, and add to the influences that transform our American democracy into a blustering sham. "No more slave States!" Speak, write, agitate and vote with this watchword. [Savannah News.

SECESSION. The Fayetteville Observer learns from various private sources, that the Legislature of South Carolina will secede from the Union at the ensuing session, and that the feeling of that State is almost universally in favor of this movement. This would certainly be much wiser and nobler, than the course pursued by Massachusetts. She is perfectly willing to remain in the Union and enjoy all the blessings which it confers, while she has not the generosity to make the slightest sacrifice even of opinion in its behalf. Goldsboro' Telegraph.

Mr. Stephen Clark, of this County, informs us that he killed a Bald Eagle, near Cedar Grove on the 5th instant, measuring 7 feet 3 inches between the points of each wing, and spanning 8 inches with his claws.

We also learn that Mr. Samuel Smith, who resides six or seven miles from this place, some time back, killed the mate to the one Mr. Clark killed. Hillsboro' Democrat.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Resolved, That in the view of some efforts that are being made under the specious name of Wesleyan Methodism, to introduce and enforce the doctrine of Abolition of Slavery in this State, by the agency of certain men, who have dared to assume the name of Christian Ministers, it is the duty of all the ministers and preachers of this Conference, to show their unqualified disapprobation of all such efforts and ministers, by standing entirely aloof from all such associations, and not to assist or participate in any of their mischievous and wicked and lawless efforts to subvert the order, peace and prosperity of the citizens of our State.

Resolved furthermore, That those evil and arch agents in this mischief, McBride, Crooks and Bacon, should not be permitted to assume any part of any religious service performed in any of our chapels or preaching places.

Whereas, it is publicly known that certain ministers, calling themselves true Wesleyan Methodists, have been convicted of intermeddling with the institution of Slavery in our State, and have fomented strife and discord, both in a social and religious point of view, and have brought much odium on the Christian name; and furthermore, as persons at a distance from the scene of these transactions may not be fully aware that the ministers above mentioned are not of our own order,

Resolved, That the political papers in our State, friendly to truth and justice, be requested to announce that the authors of these disturbances are not Methodist Protestants, but true Wesleyan Methodists, (so called) from the State of Ohio."

The free and Representative Government of the United States is said to be experimental—it has stood the shock of scores of years.

Our Church combines Republican Government and Armenian doctrines—the first in America to blend these two great principles. Our almost unparalleled success evinces that the public mind appreciates our position.

The next Annual Conference will convene at Bethel, on Haw River, in Guilford County, on Friday before the 2nd Sunday in November, 10 o'clock, A. M., 1851. C. F. HARRISS, Sec'ry.

[Correspondence of the Pennsylvanian.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 10, 1850.

The biter does sometimes get bitten. Abolitionism sometimes gets humbugged, but never so beautifully as in a case which came to my knowledge to-day. During the great excitement a few days since, growing out of the execution of the Fugitive Slave law, at the East, a loafing vagabond of a negro, who has been a well known dock loafer about our docks for some years past, took a journey to Union Village, in this State on some business connected with the do-nothing society, of which Sambo is a most industrious member. The abolitionists, there asked him if he was a fugitive slave? Cuffe, to carry on a joke, (for the fellow is a practical joker) replied in the affirmative, whereupon they treated him very kindly, raised money for him, gave him good dinners, some very excellent clothing, and, with letters from brother this, to somebody that, sent him on his way from town to town, every where receiving the same attention as at Union Village. At last having reached Whitehall, Sambo thought he would come back to New York, and resuming his dock-loafing again, having made money and comfortables enough in the Fugitive Slave "businesss," to make him tolerably independent during the winter. He tells the story of his adventures, with great gusto, and particularly the distinguished attentions paid him by the "big folks." He spent several days at the house of Ex-Governor Slade, of Vermont. Barn now advises his fellow loafers, and the free blacks generally to go into "de business, and make 'em fortune." The cream of the joke in this case, is to be found in the fact, that the fellow was never South of Mason's and Dixon's line in his life! He was born at Saratoga, in this State in 1820, lived a while in Pennsylvania, and latterly in this city, but never in a slave State. The "documents" given him by some of the abolition gentry he fell in with are exceedingly rich.

HON. A. W. VENABLE. We learn from a private source that Mr. Venable appeared before his constituents on Tuesday of last week, in Oxford, Granville County. And in the evening he addressed the people of that place in his able and easy manner, and was replied to by Henry W. Miller, Esq., of Raleigh. Our informant says that Mr. Venable's speech was one among the best speeches he ever had the pleasure of hearing—that he literally "used up" Mr. Miller on every position to which he was forced to retreat. We are not at all surprised at this, for we are well aware of the fact, that Mr. Venable is both able and willing to handle any man that the "Raleigh Clique" can afford to send, if it be Gov. Manly himself.

We expect Mr. Venable will be here during our next Court. Hillsboro' Democrat.

COTTON. Thomas Affleck, of Mississippi, and a man of note in the agricultural world, writes the N. O. Picayune, that, in his opinion, it is exceedingly doubtful whether the crop of this year will equal that of last, and that if planters will throw their crops into market steadily and in moderate quantities, and limit their factors to 15 cents for middlings, their cotton will command that price just as readily as a lower one.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of this State assembled in this City on Monday last, at 12 o'clock, M. The members of the Senate were sworn in by William Thompson, Esq., and those of the Commons by Charles B. Root, Esq.—Justices for Wake County.

In the Senate, Col. Bower, of Ashe, nominated for Speaker the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, of Warren; and Mr. Gilmer, of Guilford, nominated Col. Joyner, of Halifax, for the same post. The vote was as follows:

SENATORS: For this kind and distinguished mark of your confidence and favor, I pray you to accept my sincere and hearty thanks. I shall ever cherish it among the fondest recollections of my life as a much valued testimonial of the good opinion of Senators—with many of whom it has been my good fortune heretofore to co-operate in the public service. This distinction is the more gratifying and the more highly appreciated because of the peculiar circumstances under which it has been bestowed.

Were there no other considerations, this alone would be with me a sufficient inducement to bring to the discharge of the duties of the chair all of fidelity, impartiality and ability I may be able to command—sparing neither pains or industry to acquit myself of its high responsibilities, in a manner corresponding with the favorable expectations, and suitable to the dignity and high character of this branch of the Legislature.

The task I have assumed, Senators, at your bidding, at all times arduous and difficult, even to the experienced officer, cannot fail to be specially so to me since it is the first time it has been made my duty to undertake it. Its accomplishment, I am fully sensible, depends mainly on yourselves; and I indulge the gratifying assurance, that I shall not be disappointed when I invoke in advance, as I now do, your kind and cordial co-operation.

It is your right and yours only, gentlemen, to prescribe rules by which all our deliberations shall be regulated; it shall be my unceasing effort to execute and enforce them with the strictest fidelity and impartiality. It is also your right to affix limits to the authority of the Chair. They shall be most implicitly observed. And I beg Senators to remember that the Chair can exercise no discretionary or dispensing powers, and the individual whom you have now honored, desires to possess neither, except so far as it may be deemed indispensably necessary to the proper discharge of our common duties. Especially do I desire and hope, that I may, in no instance, evince a want of proper and equal respect for each and every member of the Senate—or of our regard for the high interests committed to us—or of deep and solid devotion to the lasting welfare of each and every portion of our beloved State.

Mr Dobbin having received a majority of the whole number of votes given, was declared duly elected Speaker, and was conducted to the chair by Messrs R M Saunders and D A Barnes. On taking the chair the Speaker delivered the following Address:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: I cannot permit this occasion to pass without tendering my profound acknowledgments for the honor you have just bestowed in electing me to a position hitherto adorned by our most eminent citizens. Nor can I withhold the expression of sincere diffidence in assuming a task, the proper execution of which requires much legislative experience and much Parliamentary learning.

I rely on your generous indulgence, and feel assured that I do not in vain invoke your earnest co-operation in every effort to preserve the order and to sustain the dignity of the House.

Experience admonishes many of you—observation has, perhaps, admonished you all, that nothing is so well calculated to promote the despatch of business in a deliberative body, as a rigid enforcement of the rules of order, and a strict observance of the rules of decorum.

We have convened, gentlemen, at a peculiarly interesting period in the history of our State and our country. Events of momentous magnitude are passing around us. Questions involving property, and peace, and Constitutional rights, seem now to be assuming a practical character. The minds of our wisest men are filled with fearful apprehensions and gloomy forebodings. The people of North Carolina look now with the most intense concern to the action of their Representatives. Our Legislative bearing now may seriously affect the character of our State. Let us with scrupulous fidelity preserve her honor—with calm determination maintain her rights.

In renewing the expression of thanks for this flattering testimonial of your partiality, allow me to assure you that in attempting to discharge the trust I shall know no feelings but those of the strictest impartiality—no party but our common constituents—no locality but our common State.

Mr Steele submitted the following Resolution:

Resolved, That Perrin Busbee, of Wake, be appointed Principal, and James R Dodge, of Surry, Assistant Clerk of the House of Commons.

Mr Wilson moved to amend the resolution by striking out the name of James R Dodge, and inserting that of Thomas B Bailey; whereupon, Mr Avery moved the indefinite postponement of the resolution. The question was determined in the negative, as follows:

Perrin Busbee, Esq. of Wake, and Thomas B. Bailey, Esq. of Orange, were therefore declared duly elected Principal and Assistant Clerks to the House of Commons.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the House adjourned to meet to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

In the Commons, yesterday, Mr. Bryson, of Haywood County, was elected Principal Doorkeeper, and Mr. Webster, of Chatham, Assistant.

Messrs. Leach and Sherard were appointed a Joint Committee on the part of the House to wait on the Governor, and inform him of its organization.

In the Senate, Messrs. Gilmer and Cameron were appointed on this Joint Committee. The Committee reported that the Governor would send in his Message to-day at 12 o'clock.

The two Houses then adjourned.

The Hon. DAVID S. REID, Governor elect of North Carolina, arrived in this city on Friday evening last, and took lodgings at Yarbrough's House. Gov. Reid is in fine health and spirits, and is receiving the hearty congratulations of his numerous friends. We understand he expects to remain in the city a week or two, but will probably visit his home in Rockingham Sixty-five Democrats and fifty-five Whigs. Majority on joint ballot, fourteen.

From Tuscaloosa (Ala.) we learn that the Hon. Marmaduke Williams has soon followed to the precincts of the tomb the partner of his long life, (eighty years,) whose decease we lately announced. This worthy gentleman was a Representative in Congress nearly fifty years ago from the State of North Carolina, of which he was a native.

St. Louis, Nov. 9. A speech is shortly expected from Mr. Benton, relative to his course in the last session of Congress, as well as his present position, so far as regards the chief topics of the day.

CASE OF MRS. SIMPSON.

We learn from the Fayetteville Carolinian that at the late Term of Cumberland Superior Court, Mrs. Ann K. Simpson, tried for the murder of her husband, was acquitted. The Carolinian says:

"On Thursday (thanksgiving day) the case of the State against Mrs. Ann K. Simpson, for the murder (by poison) of her husband, A. C. Simpson, was taken up. She was arraigned on Monday afternoon, and pleaded "not guilty." The bill of indictment in this case occupied five pages of foolscap. Hon. Robt. Strange, Warren Winslow and Duncan K. McRae, Esqs., conducted the defence; and Mr. Solicitor Ashe and Hon. James C. Dobbin for the State.

At the time of putting our paper to press, the examination of witnesses was not closed. The examination of Drs. Mallett and Robinson, and Rev. Simeon Colton, seemed to prove very clearly the existence of poison in the stomach of the deceased; and their opinions, based upon their examinations of the contents of the stomach, and the symptoms of illness of which the deceased died, were, that he came to his death by white arsenic taken into the stomach. This having been established, other witnesses testified, that a serious disagreement happened between Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, but a short time previous to his death. That she read to a young woman, whom she employed in the house to sew, a letter from Mr. Simpson, saying that he once believed she loved him, but he now knew she loved another better. That for the sake of their friends he would continue to live with her, but she must make him a separate bed.

It was further testified that she went to an old fortune teller, who told her a good deal of nonsense; but among other things and at different times, that her husband would not live long, and that she would marry the one she loved; that she turned the cups, and saw his coffin, and predicted his early death. It was further testified that Mrs. Simpson's amours with another man was the cause of disagreement between her and her husband.

It was testified that she bought arsenic a short time before his death, and asked a gentleman what effect it had on animals and men.

Then the testimony of two boarders in the house, detailing her conduct at the table on the day before Mr. S's death, throw dark and terrible suspicions upon the motives and designs of the prisoner. Her conversations but a few minutes after the death of the deceased, in regard to what the fortune-teller told her, and of her future course, all help to darken the picture and point to her as the only person who, in all reasonable probability, would have administered the drug; and yet, there is no positive testimony, to satisfy a man beyond all shadow of doubt, that it was her that did it.

The counsel for the defence ably and ingeniously endeavored to convince the jury that it was quite possible, even if not probable, that the man did not die of arsenic; that the physicians may have been mistaken; or that he may have taken his own life; or that being in a feeble state of health, it was not strange that he died. The State insisted that by a chain of circumstances, each link in itself not to be relied upon, but that the whole taken together, formed a chain of events which must convince any man of the guilt of the prisoner at the bar.

The jury consisted of Chas. S. Johnson, Murdoch McKinnon, Jas. W. McCallister, Danl. Clark, Jno. A. Williams, John T. Wright, Danl. Cameron, J. B. Wright, A. McGregor, John Thames, Wm. Butler, and Jas. Price.

They retired for an hour or two, and returned a verdict of NOT GUILTY."

John W. McAllister was also tried for the murder of Daniel Cutts, and acquitted.

We had the pleasure on Thursday and Friday of last week of being present at the examination of the pupils of the Warrenton Female Seminary, under the supervision of the Hon. Daniel Turner. The examination of the different classes by their respective teachers, evinced, not only a thorough knowledge of their profession on the part of the teachers, but that most necessarry qualification, the art of imparting knowledge to the young minds placed under their charge. The concert on thursday evening was largely attended, and the ease and facility in performing very difficult pieces by the young ladies, is proof of the high qualifications of their teacher, Mr. John F. Brandt. We will not extend this notice of the exercises, as a friend has handed us a more detailed notice of the examination which will be found in another column.

The whole closed by a splendid Ball at Goodloe's Hotel on Friday evening, where the "Beauty and Chivalry tript it on the light fantastic toe" until a late hour. Warenton News.

NEW ORLEANS, November 13.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO. The schooner Bonita has arrived here from Vera Cruz with dates to the 1st instant.

The Presidential election in Mexico had taken place, but from the returns thus far it is somewhat undecided. Arista has not a majority, but the Trait d'Union says he will certainly be elected President of the Republic.

Arista carries the Federal districts. He carried the following States, viz: Mexico, Queretaro, Vera Cruz, San Louis, Quana, Junto; the federal districts, Orgasa, Coahueta, Taurantipeias, and probably Sonora, Sinatho and Chilopa.

Almonte has carried Zacatecas and Yucatan, and Guerreoras has caried Durango and Mucovlian.

Predrasio has carried Michoacan, and Mugica has Puebla.

The shock of an Earthquake has been severely felt in Leon Roads.

Mexico is in a terrible condition regarding robbers, and more than ever infested with them.

Approbation of Senator Soule's Course—Great Union Meeting—Preparations to Receive Senator Downs.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 12. A correspondence is published in the papers to-day signed by eight hundred democrats, between them and Senator Soule, approving his course as Senator.

A grand Union meeting takes place to-night. There is much excitement on the subject, and it is expected there will be a tremendous outpouring of the people. The Union, by our population, is held sacred, above all earthly things.

There will be a great public meeting of both parties next week to receive and tender acknowledgments to Senator Downs. It will be an immense gathering.

MASSACHUSETTS. We shall not repine in the least, if the coalition between certain Democrats and Whig free-soilers to carry the Legislature of this State has been defeated at Monday's election. Such combinations should be scouted by all honest men, and the sooner they are overthrown the better. Even the Whigs have got ashamed of them; and it is too late in the day for the Democrats, to begin what they have always denounced. We think there is one Democrat elected to Congress in Massachusetts; the remainder of the Congressional delegation, nine in number, are Free Soilers and Whigs. Pennsylvanian.

BOSTON, November 13, 1850.

Union Meeting—Fugitive Slaves. A great Union Meeting will be held in Faneuil Hall on Tuesday, the 26th instant. The call is already signed by may influential citizens of both parties.

Hon. Daniel Webster is expected to speak on the occasion.

Considerable excitement was created here yesterday afternoon among the negroes, in consequence of the supposed presence of a colored spy.

He was followed and pelted by the mob, and was obliged to throw himself upon the protection of Marshal Tukey.

SOUTH CAROLINA. The Legislature of this State will meet in a short time, and its course will be watched with much anxiety and interest; for judging from the tone of the Press in that State, her people are ripe for disunion, and resolved to try the experiment af secession. Some of the papers are asking the question: "Shall our delegation return to Congress?" Upon the action of her Legislature, at its approaching session, depends her fate; and if she shall secede, will the President, like Gen. Jackson, order a force to compel her to submission? We do not see with what consistency he could do so if he refuses to enforce the Fugitive Slave law at the North.

MICHIGAN. The city of Detroit at the late election cast a majority of 138 votes against the adoption of the new Constitution recently framed by the State Convention. The vote on giving the right of suffrage to colored persons was, in favor of it, 192; against it, 1,376.

MARRIED,

In Caswell, on the 12th instant, by the Rev. John H. Lacy, Mr. Abner Terry of Milton, to Miss Sallie B. daughter of Richard Yerbrough Esq.

In Cumberland county, on the 21st ult., Mr. William McDugald to Miss Sarah McLean.

DIED

In this City, on the 14th instant, Mr. Richard W. Ashton, aged about 57 years, a native of Virginia, and a resident of this place for the last 35 years. He was buried with Masonic honors.

In Washington, Beaufort, on the 7th instant, Susan Simmons, only daughter of L. H. Royster, aged one year and eleven months.

In Marion, Ala., on the 12th of last month, Mr. Isaac H. Huntington, son of William and Francis R. Huntington, in the 23rd year of his age. The deceased was a native of this State.

In Cumberland County, on the 20th ultimo, John McNeill Esq., in the 77th year of his age. The deceased was a man of strict integrity and honesty, and for many years a ruling Elder of the Presbyterian Church.

On the 6th inst., at his residence in Sampson county, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Edward C. Gavin, Esq., aged 66 years.

Mr. Gavin was one of the best and most highly respected citizen of Sampson County. Many years previous to his decease, he embraced the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ, and proved himself a most worthy and acceptable member of the Baptist Church until his death. About the year 1822 or 23 he entered public life, and from that time, with few intermissions, he continued to be a worthy Member of the Senate or House of Commons of North Carolina. He also labored zealously for the interests of the Church of which he was a shining and exemplary member—the Missionary Baptist. But he is gone—his body is consigned to the narrow limits of the cold and silent tomb, and his immortal spirit has taken its flight to the God who gave it—there to reap the reward of its labors—there to bask in the sunshine of midday glory. He has left a wife and children, and a large circle of friends and connexions to lament their irreparable loss. But they mourn not as those without hope—for they are cheered by the sweet consciousness that their departed friend and relative died in the triumphs of faith and the full hope of a blessed immortality. May God be a husband to the widow, and father to the fatherless.

The deceased was long and intimately known to the humble writer of this imperfect sketch who can bear testimony to his sterling worth and unspotted integrity—plain and unaffected manners—and unostentatious piety. An affectionate husband, and a doting parent, his death was no doubt, in some degree accelerated by domestic afflictions. His character as a public man, and the confidence reposed in him by his fellow-citizens, can be better understood from the fact already stated, that he represented Sampson county in the Senate and House of Commons of North Carolina, with the exception of a few years, ever since the year 1822 or '23.

As this is the last tribute I can pay to my departed friend. I wish to God that it were in my power to make it worthy of his character, and as enduring as his virtues. But it needs not this. The sincere regrets of this community are his best elogium, and his most fitting monument is that engraven on the hearts of his friends. The old Ten Mile Church, in which he had his membership, will long continue to mourn his loss, and in after days men will point to the seat which he occupied in his life-time, as a spot hallowed by the reccollections of a good man. Wilmington Journal.

The "Buggy" also at Home Again!
R. R. R. R.
I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by myself, and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be verdant enough to question my capacity after the eloquent tribute paid to my "artistic skill" in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.
Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our

Let it be distinctly understood therefore, that our Goods Are Superior to any others offered in this Market.

We are our own Manufacturers. We import most of our Cloths, Cassimers and Vestings, and pay no second or third profit on these articles, which enables us to offer the same quality of Goods, much less than those Establishments whose purchases are made from Wholesale houses.

We ask only an examination of our Stock to convince those who are judges of styles and fabrics.

Sold and paid by those Prize Kings of America,

PYFER & CO.

No. 1, LIGHT STREET, BALTIMORE, MD.

The long-continued and unbounded success of their House in selling the Grand Capitals, is a matter of astonishment to all our cotemporaries. No wonder, then, that we stand at the head in the estimation of the public. Some charge it to Necromancy—some to one thing, and some to another, but the grand secret is that we attend most rigidly and faithfully to the interests of our Patrons, believing and feeling that the two are blended, and one!

This has been our beacon from the time we started to become dispensers of Prizes, hence the rapid growth of our business, and the great success that has attended the investments of the tens of thousands who have "risked a little to gain much." To try us, is to know us, to know us, is a Fortune.

A $5 or $10 invested in any one of the following Brilliant Schemes, through us, cannot well fail to realize thousands in return. Who will fail to make so trifling an investment!

☞ Remember Pyfer & Co's business and success in selling Prizes is such, that $10 invested with them is safer and surer to realize a handsome Prize, than $100 would be with any other Broker!!!

$125 REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, residing in Edgecombe county, four miles north of Tosnot Depot, and about a quarter of a mile from the Railroad, on or about the second of September last, his negro man named HARRY. Said Harry is about 40 years of age; 5 feet 8 inches high, or thereabouts; yellow complexion; stout built; has a scar on his left leg, from the cut of an axe; has very thick lips; eyes deep sunk in his head; forehead very square; tolerably loud voice; has lost one or two of his upper front teeth; and has a very dark spot on his jaw, supposed to be a mark.

Harry is a Carpenter by trade, and has been in the employment of a Railroad Company, in whose service he was when he runaway. He is well known along the line of the Road. It is supposed that he has obtained, or will endeavor to obtain, free papers from a free colored man living in Nash county, by the name of Moses Hagens, and assume his name, in order to make his way to a free State.

The above negro was once the property of Mrs. Copage, of Edgecomb county; afterwards he fell into the hands of Asiel Farmer, from whom he was purchased by Mr. Barnes, of said county, from whom I purchased him about six years ago. He will be certain to alter his name; probably to call himself Harry Copage, Farmer, or Barnes. He was last heard from on the 11th September, on the Newbern Road, about a mile and a half from Wilmington, enquiring the way to the Sound.

I will give the above reward to any person who will deliver him to me, or lodge him in any jail in the State; or One Hundred Dollars if lodged in any jail out of the State, so that I can get him again.

Captains of vessels are cautioned against taking the above negro away, under the severest penalty of the law.

direct from Stockholm, &c. &c.

Also whilst absent heard Jenny Lind sing—sat within four feet of Gennin the Hatter, the man what paid two hundred and twenty-five dollars for his ticket and made money at that; presented Jenny with a riding Cap, thereby rendering himself immortal, as no Lady can ride unless she has on a Lind Cap, and made too by Gennin, precisely as the Ladies generally who have heard of our fame for making "them coats" consider their Lords much handsomer and more fashionable men, when rigged out at the Store where clothing is fashioned by art.

To Members of the Legislature, &c.

Members of the approaching Legislature in want of Clothing this Winter would save twenty-five per cent if not fifty by postponing the purchasing of their clothing until their arrival here. Be sure and dont mistake our establishment, dont let any body persuade you, that they can do as well by you as we can. Dont suffer yourselves to be humbugged—that is a commodity we dont deal in, and our friends know it. Gentlemen living in this county or out of it, would do well to give us a call, as we are determined to sell cheaper than the cheapest. Persons need no longer complain of high prices. If you want clothing for yourselves, your children or your neighbors, call, we can sell them cheaper than you can buy the goods much less have them made. See Sign.

MUCH has been said in Congress, by Southern members, about the rights of the South. This community and surrounding country now have an opportunity of patronizing their own merchants and those who make up gentlemen's wearing apparel, by calling at the Proprietor's new Establishment, Peace's Block, opposite the Post office.

The Proprietor, having made the SCIENCE of cutting Gentlemen's fashionable clothing his study, in the most fashionable Cities, for many years, is now prepared to give satisfaction to all who may want their clothing made. Gentlemen furnishing cloth and trimmings, will thus give employment to many in the City of Raleigh.

Those who only wish their garments cut shall have them warranted to fit, and at moderate prices. Gentlemen's garments altered and repaired at the shortest notice.

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and patrons—to the members of the Legislature—and to strangers visiting the City, that he continues to carry on the Tailoring Business in all its branches at his old stand, where he shall be happy to see them and sell them great bargains. The subscriber had deemed it unnecessary recently to advertise his business, as he was so well known throughout the State; but for fear his old friends and customers might be under the impression that he was carried away by the great "tornado" which passed Northwards a few days ago, he has thought it best to inform them that he is still in business and hopes they will give him a call. He might say more, but it is sufficient for him to say that he has the feelings of a North Carolinian. He is permanently located here—his interests are here—and here he expects to live and die.

The Subscriber is a friend and well-wisher to all mechanical business in the "Old North State." We may wish for good times and State improvements, but we will never see them until we come to depend on our own mechanics, on home manufactures and home industry. When we come to do this then will we see our Cities and Towns flourishing; and our means will not be sent off to the "great City" of New York or Boston for articles that can be made in this State as well as
